The RUH is coming to you

The Royal United Hospital Bath NHS Trust's Public Governors welcome you to their first ever constituency meeting, which is being held at Frome Medical Centre on Wednesday 13 November 2013 at 6pm.

The meeting is open to everyone, and if you would like to find out more about the RUH Governors and their role, then we would be delighted to see you.

As well as hearing from the Public Governors, the hospital's Chief Executive James Scott, and Director of Nursing Helen Blanchard, will also be attending to give you an update on the hospital's five year plan, as well talking about Care and Quality at the RUH.

Ian Bynoe, who is one of the Trust's Public Governors, said: "One of the key aspects of the role of governor is to ensure we represent the views of our local community and of those people who have signed up as a member of the RUH. We're here to listen to what you think about the RUH and to learn how you can help us to help the hospital improve its services."

Tea and coffee will be available from 5:45pm and the meeting will begin at 6pm. If you would like to attend, please let us know you are coming in advance, by calling the RUH Membership Office on 01225 821299.
