

Infection Control

Please use hand gel rub located outside all wards and departments on entering and leaving

Due to specific infections, ward areas may need to be closed to:

- Restrict the movement of people
- Isolate staff and patients affected
- Avoid taking infections home to other family members

If you plan to visit the hospital and you have experienced diarrhoea and/or vomiting or you are feeling unwell please 'stay away'. Please seek advice for your specific problem before visiting the hospital.