

www.modernslaveryhelpline.org

Unseen app \(Google Play\)

www.nationcrimeagency.gov.uk/publications

www.aspartnership.org.uk/resources

www.IASCtoolkit.nottingham.ac.uk

www.encounters-festival.org.uk

www.gla.gov.uk

www.ourwatch.org.uk/crimes-archive

www.gov.uk/government/collections/modern-slavery

This is the national helpline for reporting and seeking advice about Modern Slavery. The helpline is open 24/7, and reports can also be made through the website. The website has various resources including materials in multiple languages. The Helpline also publishes quarterly reports on the calls received.

The Unseen App provides a simple guide to recognising the signs of modern slavery and reports directly into the Modern Slavery Helpline.

The National Crime Agency publishes quarterly figures on the number of potential victims entered into the National Referral Mechanism by age, nationality, gender, location and type of exploitation.

Referral pathways for adults and children are available on the ASP website, along with elearning, posters in multiple languages, and reports.

A toolkit for Modern Slavery partnerships is available through the University of Nottingham. It provides guidance on governance, action planning and performance management, along with templates, checklists and resources.

Unchosen produced a series of impactful short films on Modern Slavery.

These are now available through the Encounters Festival website.

The Gangmasters and Labour Abuse Authority website provides a wide range of publications and resources on labour exploitation.

The Neighbourhood Watch provide a toolkit for community campaigns to raise awareness about Modern Slavery.

Includes presentation templates, campaign action plan, printable resources, and visual media.

The government website for Modern Slavery provides a range of resources including NRM referral forms, information on the duty to notify, transparency in supply chains, legislation, research and publications.

@aspartnership1 #ASPartnership2018